

FOREWORD GUEST EDITORS

Dear esteemed readers,

This year has been very special for the scientific journal of multidisciplinary research UTMS Journal of Economics, since it celebrates 10th year anniversary. We would like to express our sincere gratitude to the Editor in Chief — Prof. Zoran Ivanovic, PhD and to the International Scientific Editorial Advisory Board for choosing us as the guest editors and for the support they have provided to us. It has been a great honor and pleasure to serve in this issue as Guest Editors.

This issue consists of 10 scientific articles written by 25 authors from various countries. We believe this issue will be very interesting to readers because it offers many scientifically interesting topics such as: humanizing the economy, fiscal behavior, lifelong learning and enhancing the employability, tourism research, challenges in higher education, corporate governance, teaching tourism students, business ethics and social responsibility, enhancing entrepreneurial skills and the implications of using the mobile media devices by children. This edition is largely devoted to the importance of business education. Scientific researches in this edition are focused on quality business education that today needs to be in line with market needs and in line with the needs and demands of modern society. Today human resources must be prepared for the labor market with all necessary appropriate knowledge, skills and competences. The papers are emphasizing the importance of engaging knowledge and understanding of complex processes and relationships in the economy. Education system is the main driver of science and economic development and represents an essential process of acquiring the necessary knowledge, skills and competences.

We would also like to congratulate all the authors on their contribution in this issue and to all reviewers on their timely suggestions for improvements and recommendations. Dear readers, we hope you will find interesting topics for yourself and enjoy reading this new issue of the UTMS Journal of Economics Vol. 10 No. 1.

June, 2019.

Guest Editors
Prof. Suzana Baresa, PhD ¹
Prof. Sinisa Bogdan, PhD ²

¹ Assistant Professor, University of Rijeka, Faculty of Tourism and Hospitality Management, Croatia

² Assistant Professor, University of Rijeka, Faculty of Tourism and Hospitality Management, Croatia